ROSS WRIGHT INJURED

Ross Wright is laid up with a broken collar bone this week and George Kile bruised up some as a result of a car accident last Saturday night.

Harry Bullock received by express the mounted head of a five point, black tailed deer Monday from Colorado Springs. This deer was killed a year ago in the mountains near Cotopaxi, Colorado, by Mr. H. Coleman and given to Mr. Bullock. Mr. Bullock and family were also fortunate in getting to help eat a part of the fore shoulders which is the "Ham What Am!"

The head was mounted in Colorado Springs and is certainly a fine specimen. It is now on exhibition at the City Bakery and Mr. Bullock is proud to show the "beauty" to any one caring to see.

Mrs. Alfred Huguley returned Friday from her mother's, Mrs. Olive Green at Elmwood where she has been for several days.

Miss Maude O. Thomas, editor of the Herald, and Mrs. O. H. Cafky of Forgan, left last Friday morning for Oklahoma City. From there they will go to McAlester where they will attend the State Federation of Womens Clubs. They will then spend a few days at Hot Springs, after which Miss Thomas will visit her niece Mrs. Ira M. Hudson, at Eldorado, Arkansas, and Mrs. Cafky will visit relatives at Fort Smith, Arkansas. They do not expect to return until after Thanksgiving.

O. M. Taylor, age 25 and Ida Horsford, age 14, were married Saturday morning at Buffalo, in Harper county. As the bride was not of age and had not obtained her father's consent, the groom was arrested and placed in the jail at Beaver Saturday night to await trial.

Oscar Staker of Liberal, Kansas, was in Beaver Monday and while here called at this office and renewed his subscription to the Herald.

S. J. Carrier, of Carrier, Oklahoma, was in Beaver the first of the week visiting at the Uly Wright home and also visiting relatives in the country.

COMMUNITY MEETINGS A SUCCESS

The series of community meetings just closed in Beaver were a splendid success. These meetings were held at the Christian church and with the exception of the first night, large crowds came to hear Captain Nussbaum and his splendid assistant and singer, Walter Nussbaum. While of course there were some few in Beaver who did not support the Specialists as well as they might, the greater majority of people stood behind them and really enjoyed and appreciated what they had to say.

When we say these addresses were excellent in every detail we do not exaggerate in the least. The sermon Sunday night, "Your Life in the Community" was a wonderful address, and no one could listen to Captain Nussbaum without being uplifted and made better.

The music furnished by these two was fine! Every single one of the addresses was as good as one would pay fifty or seventy-five cents to hear on the Lyceum Platform and then not hear the music as furnished by the Nussbaums.

While no community organization resulted from these meetings, community interest was greatly stimulated and we are sure that an organization will be formed in the future as an outgrowth of the Nussbaums work here.

Many people were greatly disappointed because no club was organized but no blame can be laid at the door of Captain or Walter Nussbaum as they did their best to put the thing over.

Beaver has nothing but praise for these Specialists and many people are looking forward to a return date, when more can be accomplished.

MUSIC CLUB MEETS

The Ladies' Music club met with Mrs. W. G. Stranathan Tuesday evening. As the community program was being held at the church the club adjourned early to attend the meeting.

Miss Vesta Carter was leader and a short program was given consisting of two piano numbers by Mrs. Jeff Holland, and two vocal numbers by little Miss Ina Carter. A short business meeting was held and Messdames W. G. Stranathan and R. H. Loofbourrow were elected delegates to the Biennial convention of Women's Federated Clubs at McAlester, from the 7th to the 10th of November.

Delicious refreshments of cocoa and cake with whipped cream were served.

CLOVER HAY DESTROYED BY FIRE

A boy, or boys, driving along the road, smoking set fire to Will Wells' hay meadow east of town Saturday. The fire started about two o'clock and people passing along on their way to town stopped to assist in fighting the fire, but in spite of their efforts, two fine stacks of sweet clover hay were burned.

GREGORY'S STORE CHANGES HANDS

W. S. Potter bought the meat shop and J. W. Webb and J. A. Spohn the grocery line from W. A. Gregory last week.

The open meeting of the Masons was held last Friday night to commemorate the occasion of George Washington being raised to the Sublime Masters Degree.

Members from Floris, Forgan, and several from Perryton, Texas, were present.

The speakers who were to have been present were not able to come but the people were most pleasantly entertained with an address by C. S. Nussbaum, Dr. Long and others. Music was furnished under the splendid leadership of Walter Nussbaum.

Refreshments were served and a most delightful evening enjoyed by all.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH NOTES

Our attendance climbed to 190 last Sunday, November 6. A number were tardy. We hope you will get the habit of coming on time.

The Men's Bible class and the Loyal Women both had several new ones Sunday. We are glad to have you come. Get the habit.

Miss Forquer of W. Va., who is staying with Mrs. Couch, was a welcome visitor of the Young People the past two Sundays.

Margaret McArthur has enrolled in the Loyal Daughters. This class has their new class pennant.

The Loyal Hustlers were delighted to have their teacher, Miss Lois Quinn, home again and improved in health. They are wearing new class pins.

CHRIST AT WORK IN ASIA

* At the Globe, Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, November 20th.

Sixty-four slides showing peoples of India, China and Japan and their need of the Gospel. The work of the missionary and what follows his work.

These pictures are very instructive and accompanied by a most interesting lecture.

This evening's entertainment is free but we hope you will feel justified in making an offering for missions.
